

Office for Residential Swap

July 16, 2004

Office for Residential Swap

RCP Development and Faison Development, in partnership, have purchased the office building at 1010 Massachusetts Avenue, which they plan to tear down to build approximately 160 condominiums. This project shows the current strength of the condominium market in Downtown as an office building is replaced with condominiums.

http://www.downtowndc.org/gc_site.asp?id=news&news_id=42